RCMQG Officer's Meeting Agenda: June 02, 2019

1. Operations

2. Finances (Diane)
    a. May Monthly Financial Report will be finalized once bank statement is received.
    b. YTD Report
        i. This report includes the income from the last meeting even though it hasn't been deposited yet.
    c. Post Office box rental has been renewed.
    d. Google Pay online payment system seems to be working well.
    e. Category definitions are still in progress.

3. Committee Updates
    a. Membership (Glenn)

    b. Website/Social Media (Trina)
        i. Glenn has asked for a better way to print membership forms from the website.
        ii. Kelci and Charlene are now helping with Instagram. Encourage members to interact on account.

    c. Charity (Crystal)
        i. 10 people have responded to the survey about the QuiltCon charity quilt. I will compile the list and then send out to members to vote on their favorite. Also, I will register our guild on the national site for the charity quilt.

    d. Fundraising (Amanda)
        i. Quilt Photography Booth—talked to a Photographer friend. Very doable. She could potentially do it but needs to wait until after April to discuss further. Thinking October or November? Will follow up with her this month.
        ii. Sewing Consignment Sale
            1. Fee for non-members to reserve a spot. $5? $10?
            2. Comments on registration form?
            3. This week:
                a. Post Seller's Fliers online
                b. Open up Registration Form
                c. Respond to registrations with file for tags

    e. Programming (Sherry)
        i. Fabric Dyeing workshop—June 8th
            1. Kits are being packed this week and final items purchased
            2. We have 10 registered 8 Paid, Shirley and Kris have not paid
                a. Kris's check was received in the P.O. Box but has not yet been deposited ii. ECMQG has responded working out details ~ no new updates
        iii. Gees Bend Trip Update Carpool down Friday June 21, stay in Selma drive to Gees Bend Sat morning June 22 (Ms. Pettaway will be there from 10-) visit Black Belt Treasures and Quilt Trail and head back Saturday.
        iv. Retreat ~ We are almost sold out there is 1 spot left.
            1. Currently have 19 deposits, 3 more people registered and unpaid, 1 day quilter, Red Rooster has 22 beds, can fit 24 people if we put 2 people in the 2 full beds.

2. Planning update - many vendors have been contacted and we have some favorable responses, still contacting a few more possible donors
3. A couple of members have volunteered to donate prizes, should we ask the guild if anyone wishes to donate? (longarming,??)

4. Display for 2019 Quilt Con Charity Quilt with NASA?

5. Quilt Con 2020—room booked and respondents emailed. Down to just 2 folks, so we can take up to 2 more if people want to join in.

6. Criteria to approve requests to share things at the meeting
    i. Quilting related
    ii. Non recurring announcement at RCMQG--no more than every 6 months
    iii. Available to all members--don't have to pay to join another group to participate iv. Person requesting announcement will serve as point of contact, need their contact info
    v. Info is presented by officers

7. Guild Goals
    a. Revisit the goals we outlined last year to see how we are doing and put a road map in place to "connect the dots" between our current capabilities and the BIG long-term goals we outlined.

8. June Meeting
    a. Scrap Challenge Reveal (prize)
    b. Continue accepting retreat deposits
    c. Project Quilting Program (Charlene Waggoner)